Gulliver
SINISTRA UNIVERSITARIA

Gulliver, the University Cultural Association and Representative List, is a group of university students who for 39 years have been actively committed to defending student rights and building a truly free, accessible, and high-quality university.

REPRESENTATION

We are student representatives and have been the University's leading party for 30 years. We engage in university politics without identifying with a national party, always protecting the interests of the students within University. The core principles of our work are: the protection of the right to education, the fight against all forms of discrimination, anti-fascism, and anti-racism.

With our daily presence in the Faculty Halls and on social media, we are always available to receive feedback and suggestions, provide information, and assist with the complicated university bureaucracy, as well as discuss university affairs, current events, and politics.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

University life shouldn't be limited to lectures and studying, but should also be a time for personal and collective growth. For this reason, we organize cultural activities, courses, and seminars, as well as recreational activities such as GulliverRock, now in its thirty-second year, as well as aperitifs and parties both inside and outside the University. All activities are inspired by ideas from students, both members and non-members, which Gulliver promotes.

Gulliver's potential is enormous, and to fully exploit it, everyone's contribution is needed. If you'd like to contribute, stop by our Faculty Meeting Rooms, connect with us on our social media pages, or join our weekly meetings held every Tuesday at 9:30 PM.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU!

GENDER LANGUAGE

Like Gulliver, among the values we champion, we consider the fight against discrimination and intersectionality to be fundamental, even in language: we are committed to using the ə (schwa) and impersonal forms. In this guide, we will use the symbols ə for the singular and 3 for the plural.

These symbols were identified by scholars and linguists to introduce the neuter gender into the Italian language and eradicate the discrimination that the overextended masculine entails.

RIGHTS TO EDUCATION

Also this year we find ourselves denouncing the increasingly critical situation affecting the Italian university system and, in particular, the Right to Education. Italy continues to follow a direction opposite to that which should characterize a country that recognizes education as one of the main tools for social and collective growth.

Beyond the triumphalist narrative promoted by the Ministry, reality tells a very different picture, Italian universities continue to suffer the effects of a systematic defunding of the university system.

The consequences on the Marche region are obvious, fewer resources translate into greater precariousness, a downsizing of services and an increasingly heated competition between universities to ensure survival. This consolidates a university model similar to a company, where the logic of performance prevails over the critical and formative function of knowledge.

We students are the ones who suffer the effects, forced to deal with increasing pressure to achieve standards of "excellence" within increasingly rigid times.

The regional program on the Right to Education above all returns a sense of uncertainty: uncertainty about the possibility of continuing to guarantee access to economic benefits and scholarships to all those who are entitled to them. Despite the reassurances of the Council, which continues to declare its intention to ensure coverage for all eligible people, the body for the right to study continues to affirm that it has strong doubts about the actual availability of resources and the sustainability of the commitments made.

Added to this is an increasingly serious housing crisis, which for years has been one of the main obstacles to effective access to the Right to Education. Public beds continue to be largely insufficient while the cost of rents on the private market reaches increasingly unsustainable figures. The interventions carried out so far through PNRR funds have proven insufficient and, in many cases, unable to concretely resolve a structural problem affecting Ancona.

In fact, it was decided to entrust a significant part of the interventions to private entities, fueling a model that ends up transforming a fundamental right into an opportunity for profit. It is unacceptable that private operators continue to be allowed to profit from the pockets of the student, without addressing the structural causes.

In addition, the places created are bound to a limited time concession, equal to only twelve years, at the end of which there is no guarantee that they will continue to be allocated to students, making these measures even more inadequate.

Added to this are the difficulties encountered by international students, attracted by ambitious enrolment campaigns that result in empty shop windows. Too often they find themselves excluded from calls for scholarships due to slow bureaucracy, documentation that is very difficult to find, and discriminatory rules that hinder their right to study in decent conditions.

To further worsen this already dramatic picture, there is the reform of the filter semester, presented as an opening and a sign of inclusion, but which has turned out, in reality, in yet another hypocritical and purely propagandistic measure. The limited number, in fact, has not been abolished, but simply postponed, turning into a deferred selection that has worsened the condition of thousands of students.

The access model has been built on a prolonged selective system, which increases uncertainty and unloads the entire responsibility for "merit" on the shoulders of the student, without however offering any real guarantee of inclusion or support. This change feeds the illusion of free access for all, while in reality it reinforces social inequalities and further precarious educational paths, transforming the university into an obstacle course that selects on the basis of economic possibilities.

As a student union, we cannot remain silent in the face of this drift. We will continue to mobilize and claim a truly public, free and accessible University, which does not select by "merit", which does not force anyone to abandon their studies for economic reasons, and which does not transform the student into a commodity to be evaluated on the basis of market logic.

SERVICES AND DURATION

For the academic year 2026/2027, students who apply must be enrolled in courses by the dates set out in the calls published by the reference university, except for students who apply for the last semester of the scholarship, for whom enrolment in the current academic year at the time of application is sufficient.

The scholarship includes the following components:

- Accomodation or rent contribution;
- Canteen service;
- Cash component (determined based on income).

N.B. Scholarship winners are exempt from paying university fees: they are not subject to the payment of the second and third installments, they will only have to pay the first installment, which will then be refunded.

The exemptions will be communicated to the university directly by ERDIS.

ACCOMMODATION OR RENT CONTRIBUTION

For off-site students, winners of the scholarship, the accommodation service will be granted for a period of 10 months: starting from the date of opening of the service until 17 July 2026. It is possible to refuse accommodation in the facilities offered by ERDIS and arrange accommodation yourself, but in this case the accommodation fee will not be refunded. Students who have won a scholarship, who obtain their degree during the period of use of the benefits, retain the right to the monetary portion of the scholarship while they lose the services (canteen and accommodation) connected to it.

Off-site students who are beneficiaries of scholarships, not accommodated in the Institution's housing facilities, due to lack of free places or for students attending courses in detached locations, where the Institution does not have housing facilities, must submit a copy of the rental contract for consideration by 14 November 2025, registered with the Revenue Agency, stipulated with the landlord for a period of not less than 10 months, referring to the academic year for which the scholarship is requested (from the opening of the services until September 2026).

In order to obtain the payment of the accommodation portion of the scholarship itself, the home must be located in the municipality where the university studies are attended or in a neighboring municipality. For scholarship winners in the last semester, the period cannot be less than 5 months. The months of the contract included in the academic year 2026/2027 (opening of the service - March 2026) will be paid. The lease is allowed to start from September 2025.

The rental contribution will be awarded only in the event that a student chooses to stay in the ERDIS facilities and these are already totally full. However, a valid rental contract must be presented, lasting at least 10 months. In order to obtain the payment of the accommodation portion of the scholarship itself, the home must be located in the municipality where the university studies are attended or in a neighboring municipality. For scholarship winners in the last semester, the period cannot be less than 5 months. The lease contract is allowed to start from September 2024.

For students who are not eligible for the free accommodation service, it will be possible to use the latter for a fee.

CANTEEN SERVICE

For commuter students, winners of the scholarship, there is 1 free daily meal. For off-site students, winners of the scholarship, there are 2 free daily meals (lunch and dinner). This service will normally be guaranteed for one year from the beginning of university classes and for the entire period of validity of the scholarship.

For students who are not eligible for the free catering service, it will be possible to access the canteen service by paying a fee for each meal consumed. The Institution will provide for the reimbursement of the canteen fee to all students who are beneficiaries of scholarships, and to those eligible in the years following the first, in the event that it is not in a position to provide this service free of charge or in the event that it is unable to provide adequate meals to students suffering from a specific pathology. In this case, the student, by 17 October 2025, must submit a specific request drawn up on the form, which will be made available by attaching the documentation (indicated in art. 11.3 letter h) of this call. Students who have been awarded a scholarship for the additional semester will be able to take advantage of the catering service for a fee from 1/04/2026.

CASH COMPONENT

The cash portion of the scholarship is defined according to income (ISEE). It will be paid in several equal installments and disbursed exclusively through:

- credit to a current account (opened at an Italian credit institution or in a country participating in the "Sepa" circuit) in the name or joint name of the student
- prepaid card in the name or joint name of the student with an IBAN referring to an Italian credit institution or a country belonging to the "Sepa" circuit.

DURATION OF SERVICES

The services can be requested for a period indicated in the reference table:

	CdL Triennale	CdL Magistrale e	CdL Magistrale a Ciclo Unico	CdL Magistrale a C.U. di 6 anni	Dottorato di ricerca
Studente italiano o straniero	3 anni + 1 semestre	2 anni + 1 semestre	5 anni + 1 semestre	6 anni + 1 semestre	Durata del corso
Studente con invalidità al 66%	4 anni + 1 semestre	3 anni + 1 semestre	6 anni + 1 semestre	7 anni + 1 semestre

Studente con invalidità al 66% iscritto a tempo parziale	9 anni	7 anni	13 anni	15 anni

NOTE: SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS FOR AN ADDITIONAL SEMESTER

To obtain the scholarship for the last semester, it is sufficient to enrol in the current academic year at the time of application. Students enrolled in the last year of the Bachelor's degree, in the academic year 2024/2025, when submitting the scholarship application for the academic year 2025/2026, must make the option between the last semester of the Bachelor's degree or the first year of a two-year Master's degree. Those who graduate from the three-year degree by the date set out in the University Institutions' Manifestos, who pre-enrol or regularly enrol in the first year of the Master's degree for the academic year 2026/2027, within the deadlines set by the individual University Institutions, can apply for a scholarship for the first year of a two-year Master's degree.

If the student fails to obtain the three-year degree by the date in the introduction, and enrolls in the first year of the three-year degree, he/she must produce, by 5 May 2026, a self-declaration certifying merit, from the date of 10/08/2025, and his/her application will be considered as a scholarship request for the seventh semester and in the presence of the necessary requirements the benefit will be confirmed and then redetermined with a subsequent act.

The scholarships granted for the first semester, beyond the legal duration of the courses, are for an amount equal to half of the scholarship provided on the basis of the ISEE of the beneficiary student; The accommodation and canteen services obtained will normally be provided from the beginning of university classes until 31 March 2026.

To apply for the scholarship for the additional semester, it will not be necessary to enrol in the 2026/27 academic year, but it will be sufficient to enrol in the 2025/26 academic year at the time of application.

N.B. Scholarship winners, who obtain their degree during the period of use of the benefits, retain the right to the monetary share of the scholarship while they lose their canteen and accommodation services.

INCOME REQUIREMENTS

The income requirements are identified on the basis of the ISEE for benefits for the Right to University Education. For the academic year 2025/2026, the thresholds of the ISEE and ISPE indicators are €24,000 and €50,000 respectively.

N.B. You can request the current ISEE: the most "up-to-date" version of the indicator of the economic situation of the family, because it refers to a shorter period of time than that in which a subsidized social benefit is requested.

WARNING! When you go to the CAF/Professional to request the ISEE, it should be specified that the request is aimed at obtaining the ISEE for subsidized services for the Right to University Education, which is the specific and necessary indicator for the purposes of the scholarship application (since it is not possible to integrate requests that have already closed but you would have to do it all over again, we recommend the utmost attention).

N.B. In the event that the benefits for the right to education are requested by two or more students belonging to the same household, the ISEE certificate must contain the wording "applies to subsidized benefits for the right to university education in favor of...", reporting the student's tax code".

The legislation considers the scholarship received in the previous year as an income component. This means that, although the student will also have to indicate the scholarship obtained in the year 2024 among the income for the purposes of calculating the ISEE, once the ISEE has been obtained, the ERDIS will separate the amount of the scholarship previously received.

TO APPLY OR NOT TO APPLY?

Students who have higher ISEE values will be automatically excluded. This does not apply to students who received the scholarship in 2024, the value of which will be separated from the ISEE processed by INPS. Therefore, we advise those who belong to this category, and who have an ISEE of just over € 24,000, to apply anyway, as, following the separation carried out by the institution, they could fall within the limit.

INCOME REQUIREMENTS

COURSES WITH FEWER THAN 60 ANNUAL ECTS CREDITS

ATTENTION! Merit requirements have been redefined for certain courses that allow students to earn fewer than 60 credits during the current academic year.

Example: A student who enrolled in the 2024/2025 academic year in the Computer and Automation Engineering degree program must earn 22 CFU by August 10, 2025, to avoid having to return the scholarship for the 2024/25 academic year (and to be eligible to apply for the scholarship for the 2025/26 academic year). This is because the study plan for the first year of the program allocates 54 CFU (less than 60).

To view the eligible courses, please consult the attachments to the 2025/2026 scholarship call for applications (pages 70–85).

RESETTING UNIVERSITY CAREER

It is possible to request the annulment of one's university academic record for the purpose of scholarship eligibility calculations. This request may be made only once, following an irrevocable withdrawal from studies during the first year; upon re-enrollment, the student is eligible to apply for the scholarship, provided they have returned the scholarship previously received for that same academic year and meet the required criteria.

PLEASE NOTE! Credits recognized from the previous course cannot be counted towards the number of credits required to meet merit requirements (for the renewal of the scholarship) or for eligibility for benefits in subsequent years.

Example: A student who enrolled in the Biological Sciences degree program in the 2023/24 academic year and subsequently withdrew from their studies to enroll in the Medicine and Surgery degree program for the 2024/25 academic year may request to have their academic record reset so that their initial year of enrollment is recorded as 2024/25.

COURSE TRANSFER

For students enrolled in a year beyond the first who have transferred to a different degree program, academic credits are valid only if recognized for the degree program for which the benefit is being requested.

Therefore, only those credits corresponding to subjects included in the study plan for the specific academic year corresponding to the year of the degree program for which the scholarship is being requested will be validated.

Therefore, the aforementioned credits are valid only if they are included in the study plan for the year of the degree program for which the student is applying for the scholarship.

Example: A student who enrolled in the Law degree program in the 2023/2024 academic year and passed the Tax Law exam cannot have those credits validated if they wish to transfer to the Economics and Commerce degree program, because the subject is scheduled for the third year (they will be able to do so in the third year).

STUDENT WITH DISABILITIES

For students with disabilities, merit requirements are 40% lower than the standard criteria. Additionally, please note that the services are provided for a duration one year longer than the standard term.

BONUS

To reach the ECTS credits required to apply for the benefit, the student may use a credit bonus based on the year of the course they will be attending. The request must be made when filling out the application:

- 5 ECTS credits if used for the first time to qualify for benefits for the second academic year of a Bachelor's or Single-Cycle Master's degree program (therefore, this bonus cannot be used either to reach the 20 ECTS credits by August 10th required to receive the second installment of the first-year scholarship, or to reach the 20 ECTS credits by November 30th required to avoid scholarship revocation; the bonus may only be utilized if the 20 credits have already been obtained);
- 12 ECTS credits if used for the first time to obtain benefits for the third academic year of a Bachelor's or Single-Cycle Master's degree program;
- 15 ECTS credits, if used for the first time to qualify for benefits in subsequent academic years of a Bachelor's or Single-Cycle Master's degree program.

N.B. Before applying for the bonus, go to the link provided in the “Merit requirements” section of this guide and check whether the requirements for your course have been revised.

The bonus cannot be combined with other bonuses. In subsequent years, only the remaining portion of a previously partially used bonus may be utilized. A student enrolled in a Master’s degree program may use the bonus that was not utilized during their Bachelor’s degree program, even if they transferred from another university. For the second year of the Master’s program, a maximum of 15 bonus credits may be used.

Furthermore, if you apply for a scholarship for the 2025/2026 academic year but did not apply for one for the 2024/2025 academic year, you may use bonus credits to apply for the 2025/2026 year.

EXCLUSION, FORFEITURE AND REVOCATION

The most common cases are:

- Students enrolled in the first year (bachelor's, master's, single-cycle master's, and single-cycle specialist) who have not earned at least 20 credits (ECTS) by November 30, 2025, or 10 credits if enrolled part-time.
- student who does not correctly declare his/her financial/asset situation
- student transferred to another university institution with registered office outside the Marche Region
- student who withdraws from studies in the year in which he or she wins the scholarship (before August 31, 2026)
- students receiving other scholarships, with the exception of those intended for study programs abroad
- students who are not enrolled for the 2025/2026 academic year, except students requesting a scholarship for the last semester.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The amount of the scholarship depends on the student's residency status:

- Local students (residing in the municipality where the course is held): €2,890.16
- Commuting students (residing in a municipality within 60 minutes' travel time by public transport): €4,190.71
- Non-local students (residing in a municipality other than those mentioned above) and independent students: €7,171.11
- Students attending distance learning courses and students in detention: €7

N.B.: Students admitted to doctoral programs are granted the "non-resident" scholarship, regardless of their place of origin.

Reductions or increases are subsequently applied to the aforementioned amounts based on the ISEE, as shown in the table:

Valuel S.E.E. (€)	Incremento o Riduzione
From zero to 12.000	15% Increase
from 12.000,01 to 16.000,00	0 % Reduction

from 16.000,01 to 18.000,00	12,5 % Reduction
from 18.000,01 to 20.000,00	25 % Reduction
from 20.000,01 to 22.000,00	37,5 % Reduction
from 22.000,01 to 24.000,00	50 % Reduction

For students awarded the scholarship for an additional semester, the amount allocated for each service namely accommodation, the canteen, and the cash allowance is reduced by 50%.

The following percentage increases to the total amount are also provided for:

- students simultaneously enrolled in two degree programs: the scholarship amount is increased by 20%, provided the student meets the merit requirements for both enrolled programs.
- female students enrolling in a S.T.E.M. degree program: a 20% increase in the amount (this 20% increase cannot be combined with the 15% increase provided for students with an ISEE below €12,000).

CASH COMPONENT

The term “scholarship” encompasses all services provided by the Agency. Therefore, depending on the student's status, the fees for accommodation and/or dining services are deducted from the total scholarship amount.

a) non-resident, independent student: €2,782 (Housing Service) and €1,983 (two free daily meals) are deducted

b) commuting student: €991.50 is deducted for one free daily meal

N.B.: Students cannot request a cash equivalent for the portion of the fee allocated to services, except in specific cases outlined in the call for applications. One such example is the dining hall service, where specific medical conditions prevent a student from using it and the agency is unable to provide suitable meals.

SCHOLARSHIP AMOUNT ADJUSTMENTS OR SUPPLEMENTS

- student who has been awarded the scholarship for the additional semester: the cash portion will be reduced by 50%
- Should a student receiving a reduced-amount scholarship experience a deterioration in their financial situation compared to what was declared at the time the scholarship was awarded, they may submit the necessary documentation to request a review of their status. Any resulting increase in the scholarship amount will take effect starting from the next immediate semi-annual installment.
- The student must submit a specific request by December 12, 2025, accompanied by tax documentation attesting to the expenses incurred in 2025.

DISBURSEMENT

The monetary portion of the scholarship will be paid in three installments via credit transfer to:

- a current account held solely or jointly by the student at a bank in Italy or in a country within the SEPA area;
- a prepaid card held solely or jointly by the student that features an IBAN and is issued by a financial institution in Italy or in a country within the SEPA area.

N.B.: The payment will be made to the IBAN provided when completing the scholarship application.

The monetary portion of the scholarship will be paid in accordance with the schedule and procedures set out below.

Students enrolled in the FIRST YEAR of a Bachelor's degree program or a Single-Cycle Master's degree program:

- First installment: 20% of the total amount; payable within 10 days of the enrollment deadline for the degree programs, and in any case, no later than November 10.
- Second installment: an additional 30% of the total amount; payable within 60 days of the publication of the ranking lists, and in any case, no later than December 31.
- Third installment: the remaining 50% of the total amount; payable upon earning at least 20 credits, provided they are obtained by August 10.

Students enrolled in the FIRST YEAR of a Master's degree program:

1. First installment: an amount equal to a further 50% of the total, payable within 60 days of the publication of the rankings and, in any case, no later than December 31.
2. An amount equal to the remaining 50% of the total, payable upon completion of at least 20 credits, provided they are earned by August 10.

For students enrolled in years beyond the first: the first installment of the scholarship, amounting to 50% of the monetary value, will be paid by December 31, 2025, and the second installment by June 30, 2026.

For non-EU foreign students enrolled in the first year of the course: the first installment of the scholarship will be paid upon completion of the credits required to retain the scholarship, except in cases where they:

- Provide a suitable guarantee as specified in Article 11 of the call for applications or a surety bond;
- Belong to households that filed an income tax return with the Italian State for the year 2024.

Students eligible for the scholarship for the additional semester: the full amount will be paid with the first installment.

Students awaiting exam validation will receive the full amount in a single payment by June 2026.

HOUSING AND RENT CONTRIBUTION

For scholarship recipients who do not reside locally, accommodation is provided from the start of university classes until July 17, 2026.

If a non-local student declines the accommodation offered in facilities managed by the Agency, the portion of the scholarship allocated for accommodation will NOT be paid out in cash or as a rent subsidy.

It is possible to apply for a paid bed in ERDIS facilities (even if one does not meet the requirements for a free bed).

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

A scholarship-winning student living away from home who has selected the option for a bed in ERDIS housing facilities will be assigned accommodation starting from the beginning of classes.

The service covers a ten-month period, running from the service's opening date until July 17, 2026.

Acceptance of the assigned bed must be completed STRICTLY WITHIN 5 DAYS OF THE RANKING LIST PUBLICATION DATE by filling out and submitting the online form available in the personal user area, where the application outcome can also be viewed.

Subsequently, successful students will be notified of the bed assignment date. Upon arrival at the facility, students must present a medical certificate issued no more than 15 days prior confirming they are free from contagious diseases or conditions that would pose a risk to communal living.

Any student who has not already deposited the security deposit amount with the Agency or who may have paid it in previous years must pay a security deposit of €150. This deposit will be refunded in November 2026 to eligible individuals who are no longer assigned a bed.

If a student who has applied for housing does not receive accommodation in the facilities by October 17, 2025, due to the unavailability of the service or a lack of vacancies, ERDIS will refund the housing fee in two installments. The student must provide proof of having secured paid private accommodation for a period of no less than 10 months (5 months for scholarship recipients for the final semester).

Students receiving the rent subsidy must submit a copy of the duly registered contract by November 14, 2026.

STUDENTS ATTENDING COURSES IN LOCATION WITHOUT ERDIS HOUSING

Such students must submit, by November 14, 2026, a copy of a paid rental agreement registered with the Revenue Agency (Agenzia delle Entrate) covering a continuous period of at least 10 months or 5 months for scholarship recipients attending for the final semester only. To receive the housing portion of the scholarship, the accommodation must be located in the municipality where the university studies take place or in an adjacent municipality.

NON-SCHOLARSHIP STUDENTS

To stay in ERDIS student residences, the student must submit a formal request by filling out the application exclusively online. After logging into the Restricted Area via authentication, click on “Request for benefits and services” and select “Scholarship and accommodation service.” During the application process, it is possible to select paid accommodation.

The monthly cost of the accommodation is determined based on financial circumstances and merit. For this reason, it is necessary to submit the same documentation required for the scholarship. There are different income brackets, which determine the monthly cost of accommodation:

	Limit ISEE	Limit ISPE	Tariffs(monthly)
REDUCED FEE (up to the first year outside the prescribed timeframe)	equal to or less than €24,000	equal to or less than €50.000	€250 (single) €240 (double/triple)
STANDARD RATE	higher than €24.000	higher than €50.000	€275 (single) €262 (double/triple)

RANKINGS

Once bed assignments for scholarship recipients have been completed, the Agency will allocate the remaining beds to eligible non-recipients who applied for paid accommodation, based on their ranking.

Publication of Provisional Rankings	15 september 2025
Deadline for Submission of Requests for Review	By the 5th day after the publication of the provisional rankings

ERASMUS

Students awarded a scholarship for the 2026/2027 academic year are entitled once per degree program to a scholarship supplement for participation in international mobility programs.

The request for this supplement is submitted when completing the online scholarship application.

For successful applicants who meet the credit recognition requirement, the portion of the grant covering canteen and accommodation services for the period spent abroad will be paid out in cash at the end of the academic year (e.g., if the international mobility grant covers a six-month period, the service allowance corresponding to those six months will be converted into a cash payment).

The grant will be disbursed in two installments:

- The first, amounting to 70% of the total grant, may be disbursed upon request prior to the start of the program, provided the start date coincides with the publication of the final rankings;*
- The remaining amount will be disbursed at the end of the academic year, subject to verification that the expected results have been achieved.*

Subject to the availability of funds, a monthly scholarship supplement of €600 is granted for the duration of the stay abroad, up to a maximum of 10 months. Any supplements received from other bodies (e.g., the university or the European Union) must be deducted from this €600 amount.

HOW TO FILL OUT THE APPLICATION

To complete the application process, you must visit the ERDIS website at www.erdiss.it.

From there, you can access the Restricted Area and proceed to fill out the application online. Applications may be submitted until August 26, 2025.

Students must declare that they have already submitted the Dichiarazione Sostitutiva Unica (DSU) including the section regarding university study support benefits valid for 2025 to INPS (either via a CAF or directly online), or they must submit it no later than the application deadline; failure to do so will result in exclusion from the benefit.

N.B.: Students may submit a scholarship application even if they do not hold an ISEE certificate at the time of completion, provided they commit via the online application form to submitting the Dichiarazione Sostitutiva Unica (DSU) by August 26, 2025, the application deadline.

AUTHENTICATION

Before filling out the application, you must authenticate; the system offers three methods for doing so:

a. WEAK authentication for international students who do not hold an Italian identity document or SPID and are not resident in Italy: please refer to the “Foreign students” section of this guide.

b. STRONG authentication via Level 2 or Level 3 SPID

To obtain your SPID, you can find all the necessary information at this link: <https://www.spid.gov.it/cos-e-spid/come-attivare-spid/>

c. STRONG authentication using the Electronic Identity Card (CIE) or the National Services Card (CNS). The Electronic Identity Card (CIE) also allows access via smartphone or tablet using the CielD app. N.B. You will need to upload a recent digital passport-style photo if you are applying for an ERDIS benefit for the first time.

COMPLETING THE APPLICATION

Once authentication is complete, click on “Request for benefits and services” » “Scholarship and accommodation service.” You will then begin filling out the actual application:

- university enrollment, indicating any specific circumstances (withdrawal from studies, concurrent enrollment, part-time enrollment, transfer to a different degree program).

- entry of income data (ISEE value) and academic merit data (accumulated credits)
- selection of benefits to apply for (scholarship and accommodation)

N.B. Students receiving the scholarship will automatically have access to the dining service.

- entry of the IBAN for the current account or prepaid card to which the monetary portion of the scholarship will be paid

If corrections are required, you can return to the screen containing the data to be corrected using the “Back” button; otherwise, if the application has been completed correctly, you can finalize it by clicking the “Save and continue” button.

Provided that the deadlines are met, the required documentation included in the application—as listed in the following paragraph—may be supplemented.

DOCUMENTATION TO SUBMIT

After logging into your reserved area, you will be able to upload the necessary documentation by clicking on “Upload documents”.

a. International students – Calculation of the ISEEU/ISPEU parificato (equivalent ISEEU/ISPEU) (see the “International students” section of this guide).

b. Students with one or both parents made redundant between July 2024 and June 2025 who remain unemployed. These students must still meet the income/asset and academic merit requirements specified in the call for applications. Applicants must attach documentation consisting of the dismissal/redundancy letter. This documentation must be submitted by the application deadline. If the documentation is submitted late or is incomplete, the student will not be placed on the reserved ranking list but rather on the general scholarship ranking list.

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION TO BE SUBMITTED LATER

c. Scholarship recipients not staying in the Agency's housing facilities – Rental agreement (see the “Accommodation and rent subsidy” section of this guide) by 14/11/2025;

d. Students with disabilities – certificate attesting to the disability, unless previously submitted in prior years or in the event of a change in the disability percentage.

To request a scholarship supplement, the student must submit fiscal documentation proving the expenses incurred (related to the purchase of prostheses, assistive devices, or any intervention facilitating participation in educational activities) by 12/12/2025;

e. Students staying in ERDIS housing facilities – Medical certificate dated no earlier than 15 days prior to accessing the housing facilities. Please note that the certificate must be submitted in hard copy on the day the accommodation is assigned.

f. Cash equivalent for the dining service due to health reasons – Medical certification issued by a specialist at a public facility indicating the type of medical condition, specifying the food substances incompatible with the condition and describing the dietary regimen the student is required to follow; to be submitted by October 17, 2025.

g. Scholarship supplement for timely graduation

Students intending to apply for the scholarship supplement must submit their request no later than December 19, 2026, using the online form available in the restricted area of the ERDIS website.

SUBMISSION OF THE APPLICATION

a. If "WEAK" authentication was used: the signed application printout, a photocopy of an identity document, and any supplementary documentation must be submitted in hard copy—either in person or via registered mail with return receipt—to the ERDIS service counters listed in the table, within the deadlines specified in the Call for Applications.

If the student is not required to attach original hard-copy documents to the application, they may send the entire package—digitally signed—to the certified email (PEC) address: erdis@emarche.it.

Please note! For the purpose of officially logging the application, the date of receipt by the agency's records office is the one that counts, not the date of dispatch.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Foreign, stateless, and refugee students are eligible to apply for the scholarship.

Foreign students are classified as "non-resident" (living away from home), regardless of the location of their residence in Italy, unless their family unit resides within Italian territory.

APPLICATION PROCESS

International students who do not hold an Italian identity document and are not resident in Italy may obtain login credentials for the online application by submitting a specific request via the procedure provided on the Agency's website.

The credentials obtained will allow for a basic level of student authentication. Students must subsequently provide ERDIS with their Italian tax code (codice fiscale), which is required to access the services.

Any scholarship as well as access to free canteen services and accommodation (if available) will be suspended pending recognition of the aforementioned status.

SCHOLARSHIP DISBURSEMENT

For non-EU foreign students enrolled in their first year, the first installment of the scholarship will be paid upon completion of the credits required to retain the scholarship, unless they:

- a. Provide a suitable guarantee as specified in Article 11 of the call for applications, or a surety bond;*
- b. Belong to a household that filed an income tax return with the Italian State for the year 2023.*

For years beyond the first and for EU foreign students, please refer to the information in the “Scholarships” section of this guide.

To receive the cash payment, the following is required:

- 1. appearing in person at the Student Services (Right to Study) office for identification purposes in cases of "weak authentication" if this was not already completed the previous year;*
- 2. submitting a copy of the Tax Code (Codice Fiscale) issued by the Revenue Agency (Agenzia delle Entrate);*

- 4. providing either at the time of application or subsequently via the reserved online area (within the deadline specified in the call for applications) the IBAN for a current account held (solely or jointly) by the student at an Italian bank, or for a prepaid card with an IBAN held (solely or jointly) by the student.*

I GOT THE SCHOLARSHIP; NOW WHAT?

Following the publication of the final rankings, a student awarded an ERDIS scholarship must comply with specific administrative requirements and deadlines to ensure the actual disbursement and continued receipt of the benefit.

The necessary procedures and applicable regulations are detailed below.

1. Providing the IBAN

To enable the crediting of the amounts due, you must enter your bank details in the restricted area of the ERDIS portal:

- Account holder: the IBAN entered must refer to a current account or an advanced prepaid card held or co-held by the student beneficiary; the use of an IBAN belonging to a third party (e.g., parents or relatives) is not permitted.
- It is recommended to verify in advance that the financial institution does not impose balance or incoming transfer limits on SEPA transfers.

2. Benefit disbursement schedule

The scholarship payment is generally issued in two separate installments:

- First installment: generally paid between December and January, subject to verification of valid enrollment/registration at the University.
- Second installment: paid subsequently, following verification that the merit or enrollment requirements specified in the call for applications have been met.

Note for first-year students: disbursement of the first installment is conditional upon the completion of enrollment and verification of the documentation submitted during the application process.

3. Use of ancillary services: accommodation and dining

Based on the assigned status (On-site, Commuter, or Off-site), the successful applicant is entitled to use the following supplementary services:

- Accommodation service: Successful applicants awarded a bed must follow the summons schedule published by the Agency for room allocation, the signing of the accommodation contract, and acceptance of the residence regulations.
- Dining service: Access to university canteens at a reduced rate or free of charge (depending on the scholarship level) is activated directly via the university ID card or the digital recognition systems provided by ERDIS.

Revocation of the benefit

Please note that the scholarship is a benefit subject to a resolute condition. Failure to meet the merit requirements established in the call for applications results in the revocation of the benefit and the obligation to repay the sums received.

First-year students (Bachelor's and Master's degree programs)

For first-year students, eligibility for the scholarship is initially determined based on financial criteria; however, continued eligibility depends on achieving a minimum level of academic merit by the strict deadline specified in the call for applications:

- Minimum merit requirement: Students must earn and have officially recorded a minimum number of university credits (usually 20 CFU) by August 10 of the relevant academic year (or by the extended deadline, if the call for applications allows for the use of a "bonus" or penalty mechanism).
- Consequences of revocation: Failure to meet the minimum threshold results in the loss of the benefit. This entails an obligation to repay any first installment already received, the loss of eligibility for housing and free canteen services, and the reinstatement of the obligation to pay university tuition fees.

Students enrolled in years beyond the first

The benefit for years subsequent to the first is awarded based on academic merit already achieved. However, students forfeit their eligibility if any of the following conditions occur:

Submission of a formal request to withdraw from studies or to transfer to another university during the academic year, prior to the deadlines specified in the call for applications.

Verification that the self-declarations submitted (regarding ISEE/ISPE or study program status) are untrue.

FAQ

If I don't have enough credits to apply for the scholarship (even with bonus credits), do I have to pay fees?

Yes, but if you meet the NoTax Area requirements, you'll only pay the enrollment fee (€156).

UNIVPM has a no-tax area (therefore, the ISEE threshold below which students are exempt from paying the all-inclusive fee) of €28,000.

However, if you don't earn 10 credits for your first year and 25 credits for subsequent years, you won't be included in the no-tax area, even with an ISEE lower than €28,000.

Does being a scholarship holder penalize you for other calls (e.g. 150 hours)?

Yes, if you have a scholarship you cannot participate in various calls for further benefits and it penalizes you in the ranking of part-time collaborations (150 hours).

I have transferred to a different degree program; can I apply for the scholarship? What should I enter as the year of initial enrollment?

If you have transferred to a different degree program, you must enter the year you first enrolled in your previous program as your initial enrollment date. This is the year that will be used to determine your eligibility for a scholarship; let's look at an example:

A student, after completing one year of Biological Sciences, transfers to the Economics and Business program. Although this student is attending the first year of the Economics and Business course, their year of initial enrollment is the previous one; therefore, regarding the right to study, they will be classified as a second-year student, and the required merit criteria will be those applicable to the second year.

If I change courses, do I have to return the scholarship? Will I be able to get it back in the future?

It depends. If you transfer to a different degree program, you will not be required to return the scholarship you received, for the reasons previously explained.

However, you would be required to return the scholarship if you withdrew from your first-year program and subsequently applied for benefits for the first year of a new program (effectively resetting your academic record).

Screening semester

Students enrolling in the "screening semester" for the 2025/2026 academic year must submit their scholarship application by August 26, 2025. It is recommended to apply to all the student support agencies responsible for the locations you intend to select, while paying close attention to the deadlines of the various calls for applications.

By when do I need to earn the ECTS credits for the first year?

By August 10, 2026, to apply for the second year; by November 30 (if the requirements are not met by August 10) to avoid having to return the scholarship.

By when must I vacate the accommodation? Are there any extensions?

By July 17, 2026 we usually request an extension as a Representative List—we therefore advise keeping an eye out for any announcements.

Within what timeframe is the cash portion disbursed?

Usually by December 31 (first installment) and by the end of June (second installment for the first year, provided the credits have been earned).
